Qantas Socceroos are Highest Ranked Team in Asia

The Qantas Socceroos are the highest ranked nation in the Asian Football Confederation (AFC) at number 33 according to the latest FIFA World Rankings released today, ahead of Iran (now ranked 47 – down 24 places), Japan (49 – down 31 places) and Korea Republic (56 – down 27 places).

While heartened by Australia's ranking within its new Confederation, Football Federation Australia Chief Executive Officer John O'Neill was puzzled by the relatively modest improvement in Australia's official position.

"While Australia's move of nine places is obviously positive, it is a little perplexing when compared with some of the other ranking changes. It appears that there are countries, for example, that have had large improvements of 20+ places, to a position higher than Australia's, when they did not qualify for the recent World Cup. While we understand that the ranking system considers several years-worth of results, Australia's relatively meager improvement would not seem to accurately reflect the achievements of the Socceroos over the last year or so.

"We will be seeking further information from FIFA so that we can better understand the way the new ranking system works. That should help us address the apparent dichotomy between the many independent acknowledgements of the team's performances on one hand, and these clinical but somewhat counter-intuitive official rankings, on the other."

MOSSY'S MUMBLINGS

RED CARD: TO any player who play-acted on the field during the World Cup – Come on, you know who you are! For a tournament where FIFA was trying to alleviate the dark side of our game, Mumblings thought it was actually worse than ever. Not a good example for the kids!

GOOAAAL: YOU have to hand it to Italy – they got a scare against the Socceroos but never looked back. Winning is a culture and they conceded just two goals during the World Cup – a penalty and an own goal. Those stats are worthy of holding aloft the greatest prize in world sport! Congrats to all who support the Azzurri.

LUCAS Neill flew back to the UK yesterday with his future up in the air. But don't worry, there are no worry lines appearing on his forehead.

Arguably Australia's best player at the World Cup, the former Manly-Warringah junior has a host of clubs queuing for his signature.

While Mumblings has been sworn to secrecy over the identity of the clubs, rest assured they are big clubs and not restricted to England.

We will be surprised if Lucas dons the Blackburn Rovers shirt this season!

SPEAKING of Lucas, Mumblings caught up with him during the week and asked how his two weeks in Australia – post-World Cup – had been.

"I was expecting the football community to be pretty excited but what has blown me away has been how well the rest of the country has got behind it all," he said.

"Walking into a restaurant and receiving a standing ovation is a pretty special feeling.

"It's just an honour to have been part of something that means so much to so many people."

SOME of the stories coming back through customs with Socceroos supporters after their World Cup odyssey are brilliant.

Like the one where an Aussie fan was so jolly on liquid amber he spoke with a fellow supporter in a German strip for 20 minutes at a pub before the Australia-Italy match before working out that his friend didn't speak a word of English. Not a word.

"It took this bloke 20 minutes to get a word in and all he could say was 'no comprehend'," our spy told us.

THERE will be thousands of youngsters pulling on the boots this weekend keen to put into action all that they have learned at their school holiday camps.

With a two week break from games because of the holidays, camps were once again inundated with our stars of the future keen to hone their skills.

Numbers were huge at most camps on the back of the World Cup whipping up a frenzy of interest.

For all you sub-junior coaches – watch closely and see who in your team has all of a sudden shown big improvement. Nothing beats touches on the ball and extra training when it comes to developing young players.

DON'T forget to catch all the action from Sunday's NSW Vodafone Premier League grand final between Blacktown City and Sydney United at Marconi Stadium LIVE & EXCLUSIVE on Foxtel Digital's Aurora Channel 183. Coverage starts at 3pm.

THE picturesque Mona Vale Golf Club will be the setting for this year's Manly United Golf Day on August 4.

It will be a day filled with fun and quality golf followed by a lunch in the club house with special guests from the football world.

Spots are still available for individuals or groups. Bookings on 9982-6228.

MOSSY'S Mumblings has eyes and ears everywhere – but we still need your help. If you have an item – good, bad, happy, sad or indifferent – that you think worthy of a mention, please email it in to mossy@mwfa.com.au by Noon each Tuesday. We'll do our best to get it in but the final decision rests with the editor.
