Australia through to second round

Friday, 23 June 2006

Australia is through to the second round of the 2006 World Cup finals after drawing 2-2 with Croatia in an amazing match at the Gottlieb-Daimler Stadium in Stuttgart.

The Qantas Socceroos twice came from behind, with Harry Kewell scoring the dramatic equaliser in the 79th minute and they held on in a chaotic final 10 minutes, to advance to a meeting with Italy in four days time.

It was a match that had everything and Australia fully deserved the point, haven taken the game to Croatia, despite going behind to a 2nd minute goal from Darijo Srna.

Craig Moore equalised from the penalty spot in the 38th minute, only for Croatian captain Niko Kovac to put Croatia back in the lead after 56 minutes after a bad mistake by Zeljko Kalac.

But persistent pressure finally paid off for Australia and Kewell, who had a great game, scored from close range after a John Aloisi flick on.

It was a match that had everything, a breathtaking start, determined fight back, a massive mistake by Kalac, who was chosen ahead of Mark Schwarzer, another deserved equaliser, three red cards and one that wasn't given in normal time, plus a disallowed winner for John Aloisi as the referee blew full time.

The win was not only built on pride in the Aussie shirt, but tonight Australia showed they belong at this level with a display that will have the Italian's very wary next Monday afternoon in Kaiserslautern.

The decisive moment for Australia came in the 79th minute, when a cross from substitute Marco Bresciano was flicked on by another substitute John Aloisi. The ball was controlled brilliantly by Kewell at the far post and he then slammed it home.

The match ended in dramatic fashion and some confusion, with ex-Australian Joe Simunic appearing to be shown the yellow card in the last five minutes, but somehow remaining on the field. He was eventually sent off after the final whistle, for remarks made to referee Graham Poll.

Brett Emerton will miss the match against Japan, after he received yellow cards in six minutes, his dismissal coming just two minutes after Dario Simic was sent off, also for two yellow cards.

Moore also had to make a clearance off the line with three minutes of normal time remaining.

Australian coach Guus Hiddink again showed he was prepared to make bold selections, when he decided to put Zeljko Kalac in goals, while Harry Kewell came in for Tony Popovic in a much standard 4-4-2 formation.

However Kalac won't look back on his first World Cup match with too much fondness, with his first action of the night to pick the ball out of the back of the net, following Srna's delightful free kick.

But worse was to follow, when in the 56th minute, Kalac went down to take a shot by Kovac, only for the ball to role over his body and into the back of the net.

Kewell should have scored shortly before his equaliser, when he had an effort from right in front palmed over the bar.

Australia showed terrific fight in the first half, after going down early, dominating play and continually putting the Croatian defence under pressure.

Viduka should have had a penalty in the 7th minute when he was clearly rugby tackled by Simunic to the ground

Australia though put the setback behind as they looked the more adventurous going forward and getting several half chances.

On the half hour mark, Stipe Pletikosa came to the rescue of his team twice, saving a Cahill header and then an excellent stop to deny a Kewell rocket from the edge of the penalty box.

Culina then tried his luck from 22 yards, but was wide, but it wasn't long before Australia was to get the luck its play deserved.

Another raid down the right saw Emerton float a ball to the penalty spot and Dario Simic handled, with Poll not hesitating to award the spot kick. Former captain, Craig Moore stepped up and made no mistake.

This did not stop Australia from attacking though and a great run by Chipperfield down the left created an opening for Viduka, but he could not get enough power on the header.

Dado Prso should have given his team the lead right on half time though, but he sliced his shot wide on a slight angle.

MOSSY'S MUMBLINGS

RED CARD: DURING what has been a sensational World Cup, I have to say the refereeing has left a bit to be desired. Whether under instructions or not, there has been far too much whistle-blowing for my liking – and not just during Socceroos' matches! The best referees are the ones you don't notice and the World Cup should have the best referees.

GOOAAAL: THE FIFA disciplinary committee for showing the commonsense to let Harry Kewell off after his "brain snap" at full-time against Brazil. Lord only knows the referee – a German who seemed hell-bent on ensuring glamour team Brazil stayed in the tournament – deserved every bit of the spray "H" gave him.

Imagine you are on a train headed for a BBQ with the Socceroos, when you look up from your seat and see a bunch of famous faces standing there with "Joe Public"!

Then you realise those faces belong to the very players you are travelling to meet – the Socceroos.

That's exactly what happened to MWFA president Ray Fanning and Manly United scout Jim Travenar in Germany this week.

Invited to a BBQ with the players – invite only for family and friends – our two operatives found themselves on the same train after a traffic jam prevented the Socceroos' bus from getting our stars there by road.

"I looked up and there was Lucas, Viduka, Emerton, Bresciano – you name them, they were there – it was amazing to see them just mixing on a public train," Fanning told Mumbblings this week.

"It was a thrill for everyone on the train and the boys were brilliant and very approachable."

ANYONE who knows Avalon's Careel Bay headquarters – and world famous canteen, more to the point – will know dear Olga for her sumptuous cooking.

Well, Olga has found another way of making someone's day.

She has in her possession a gold ring that a mum from either Wakehurst or Pittwater lost on the Careel Bay No.2 field on Saturday May 27.

The mum went looking for it but no one had found. It has since been handed in and anyone knowing the owner should contact Olga on 9451 0184.

THE glitz and glamour of the A-League returns to Cromer Park next week as Manly United take on the Newcastle Jets in a "friendly".

With Manly's NSW Vodafone Premier League commitments coming to a halt after Sunday's last-round clash with Sutherland at Seymour Shaw Stadium (3pm KO), the peninsula side was happy to answer the SOS from the Novocastrians.

Former Manly United coach Gary "Dutchy" Van Egmond is assistant coach to Nick Theodoropoulos and the side is gearing up for their pre-season cup next month.

It will give some youngsters at Manly the chance to jump on the big stage and test themselves against the best in the country.

Kick-off is 7pm on Wednesday night. Entry is a gold-coin donation and the canteen and club house will be trading. Don't miss the action!

BACK to the World Cup and the Australian camp was seething with the refereeing performance of German Markus Merk after their clash with Brazil. Those inside "Camp Socceroo" believe there was a case for off-side on both Brazil goals.

And to add insult to injury, the stony-faced whistle-blower refused to enter into any dialogue with Socceroo skipper Mark Viduka – who was at his wits-end after being pulled up every time he touched the ball

IF former Manly United and Wakehurst junior Lucas Neill hasn't been one of the most polished defenders at this year's World Cup so far, I'll give the game away!

He has been brilliant watch for the massive European clubs to come knocking as soon as the tournament ends. You heard it here first!

TIMES are tough for premier league glamour club Brookvale at the moment with their depth – particularly up front – being tested to the hilt. Experienced striker Stuart Cleary is out after knee surgery, partner in crime David Pascuzzo is also out injured and Jorge Derkes has returned to Germany. Clubs have until Wednesday June 28 to sign players.

WHICH well-known football identity recently had his house painted in a color named "Brazil"? The painter was shocked our man picked the color given what is happening in the round ball game at the moment! Shame, shame, shame...

AN outstanding year in the Manly United backline has paid off for Nikolai Topor-Stanley after agreeing to a short-term contract with Sydney FC, starting next week. Big "Toppa" will play in Sunday's last game against Sutherland before hooking up with his Sydney FC team-mates for pre-season training on Monday morning. Everyone at the club wishes him well.

MOSSY'S Mumbblings has eyes and ears everywhere – but we still need your help. If you have an item – good, bad, happy, sad or indifferent – that you think worthy of a mention, please email it in to mossy@mwfa.com.au by Noon each Tuesday. We'll do our best to get it in but the final decision rests with the editor.
